PROCEEDINGS

Hearing on Order to Show Cause.

1. As to defendant Robert Nagy, Zac Tolson, specially appearing for Farley Neuman, counsel for defendant advised that lead counsel must appear at initial case management conference and that his appearance for Mr. Neuman, who is in trial, is not acceptable. The court has received and reviewed Mr. Neuman's declaration explaining his failure to appear at the January 3, 2008 case management conference and the OSC is DISCHARGED. However, case management conference is re-calendared for Mr. Neuman's appearance on February 7, 2008 at 2:30 p.m. No other party need appear, but may if it chooses. All other deadlines are set in the case management and pretrial order.
2. Defendant Yuri Debevc appeared in pro per. Based upon his misunderstanding as to the need for his appearance, the OSC is DISCHARGED. The case management and pretrial order issued after that conference applies to defendant. Further case management conferences may be held telephonically with all parties participating. defendant advised that court appearances set by the court and trial will require his attendance, but that he may submit motions on the papers.
